MONTHLY DIGEST OF STATISTICS

No. 265

JANUARY 1968

This Digest has been prepared by the Central Statistical Office in collaboration with the Statistics Divisions of Government Departments.

2. The name of the department or organisation providing the statistics is shown under each table. Some of the statistics provided by departments are actually collected by other organisations such as nationalised boards and trade associations. The assistance provided by these organisations, too numerous to mention individually, is gratefully acknowledged.

3. The figures in the Digest are mainly totals for calendar months or monthly averages.

4. Some of the figures included in this Digest are provisional only and may be revised in later issues.

Definitions

5. A Supplement of Definitions and Explanatory Notes, published with this issue, gives detailed definitions of all the terms and units used in the Digest.

6. The following general definitions should be noted in using the Digest:

Area covered. Except where otherwise stated, all statistics relate to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

Units of measurement.

Ton = long ton of 2,240 lb.

Gallon = imperial gallon.

Consumption and stocks. The terms 'consumption', 'disposals' and 'stocks' are normally defined in detail in the Supplement to the Digest. Figures of consumption and stocks are seasonal and should be used with caution. The stocks figures given may often relate to only part of the total stocks in the country.

External trade. Owing to differences in coverage and timing, figures of imports and exports are not always comparable with those for production, consumption and stocks.

Symbols and conventions used

7. Symbols. The following symbols are used throughout:

.. not available.

— nil or less than half the final digit shown.

* average (or total) of five weeks.

8. Change of basis. A line drawn across a column between two consecutive figures indicates that the figures above and below the line have been compiled on different bases and are not strictly comparable. In each case a footnote explains the difference.

9. Rounding of figures. In tables where figures have been rounded to the nearest final digit, there may be an apparent slight discrepancy between the sum of the constituent items and the total as shown.

Change in content

Table 11. This issue of the Digest contains estimated figures of the home population of the United Kingdom, analysed by country, sex and age group.

⁽¹⁾ Figures of total working population, total in civil employment, employers and self-employed and total employees in employment, have been obtained by the method described on pages 207-214 of the May 1966 issue of the Ministry of Labour Gazette.

⁽²⁾ The figures for June 1964 (a) and the corresponding figures for earlier months are not strictly comparable with those for June 1964 (b) and later months which are on the revised basis of calculation (see pages 110-112 of the March 1966 issue of the Ministry of Labour Gazette).

⁽⁴⁾ Owing to re-classification at June 1964, figures for earlier years are not strictly comparable. See page 59 of the February 1965 issue of the Ministry of Labour Gazette.

(1) Stoppages involving fewer than 10 workpeople or lasting less than one day have been omitted except any in which the total number of working days lost exceeded 100. The figures for 1967 are provisional.

(2) From 1960 the analysis by industries is based on the revised Standard Industrial Classification, 1958.

(3) Where stoppages extend over more than one month, the workers involved are counted in the month in which they first participated.

(4) The figures of working days lost relate to the total working days lost within each of the periods shown as a result of stoppages in progress in that period, whether the stoppages began in that period or earlier.

National insurance and family allowances

Thousands

(¹) Figures for individual months are averages of the four or five weeks ending on the last Tuesday of each month. (²) Including prescribed industrial disease. (³) Yearly figures are averages of twelve monthly figures. Monthly figures up to January 1966 relate to the third Tuesday of the month; later figures relate to the first Tuesday and are estimated by a new method following changes in the medical certification arrangements. (⁴) These figures include substantial numbers of persons who have been sick for a long time and who may no longer be in employment. (⁵) Yearly figures are averages of quarterly figures. Quarterly figures relate to first Monday in February, May and November and last Monday in July. (⁶) Including a diminishing number of widows with pensions of 30s. a week derived from the old Contributory Pensions Acts. About 77,000 such pensions were being paid in June 1966. (⁷) Before 5 August 1957 widow's pension was converted to retirement pension at age 60; since that date widow's pension continues to age 65 or date of retirement if earlier. (⁸) The yearly figures relate to the end of January in the following year up to 1963, and to the end of December from 1964. (⁹) Including the elder or best child for whom no allowance is payable. (¹⁰) Average for twelve months March 1966 to February 1967. Average of five weeks.

Source: Ministry of Social Security

⁽²⁾ Before March 1961, the figures for allowances in supplementation of widows' benefit relate only to widows aged under 60, older widows being included with the retirement pensioners. The figure for September 1966 includes 47,000 recipients of widows' benefit, aged over 60.

⁽³⁾ Since 1 September 1966, the issue of an 'order-to-pay' at the Employment Exchange has been based on a person's overall requirements thus eliminating the need to confirm whether or not Unemployment Benefit is in payment. It is, therefore, no longer possible to distinguish persons whose allowances supplement Unemployment Benefit and all persons registering as unemployed are now included with Other allowances.

⁽⁴⁾ Pension age means 65 years for men and 60 years for women.

⁽⁵⁾ Some of the supplementary pensions provide for the requirements of a household with more than one pensioner.

⁽⁶⁾ Includes a small number of persons over pension age.

⁽¹⁾ This index provides a general measure of monthly changes in total industrial production. The unadjusted index allows for variations in the length of calendar months so that it gives the average weekly rate of production in each month. The seasonally adjusted index allows for holidays and regularly recurring seasonal movements.

As some of the figures on which the index is based are available only with considerable delay, the index numbers for the last few months are always liable to be revised. Industries are grouped according to the Standard Industrial Classification, 1958.

(¹) Excluding quantities used for production of steam for sale. In 1966, 263,000 tons of coal and 14,000 tons of oil were used for that purpose.

(²) Including generation by oil engine, refuse destructor, and waste heat.

(³) Including purchases from industrial producers whose generation is shown in Table 55, and net imports from France.

(⁴) Annual figures relate to the maximum load occurring near the end of the year or early in the following year.

(1) Excluding the fuel industries which produced:

Million kilowatt hours

Coal mines (1966/67)	747
Gas works (1966/67)	179
Mineral oil refining (1966)	596

These industries accounted for an average weekly production of about 29 million kilowatt hours in 1966 as compared with 324 million kilowatt hours produced weekly in 1966 by the industries included in the table.

(2) Including non-ferrous metal manufacture and industries covered by Orders VI-IX of the Standard Industrial Classification, 1958.

(3) Electricity supplied by United Kingdom Atomic Energy Authority prototype reactors to the public electricity supply system.

*Average of five weeks.

(¹) From 1964 onwards parts are included. (²) Excluding those for aircraft, road vehicles, wheeled and half-track tractors (other than heavy earth-moving types), fighting vehicles and heavy slow-speed engines for ship propulsion. (³) As from 1 January 1967 more complete information is being collected about the division of deliveries between home and export. The figures for export deliveries and net new orders before and after this date are not therefore strictly comparable. The figures for total deliveries, total net new orders and total and export orders on hand are unaffected. (⁴) Provisional.

(¹) Wool, hosiery (and other knitted goods), made-up clothing and the spinning, weaving and merchant converting sections of the cotton and man-made fibre industries. (²) The index numbers for individual sectors relate to the total output of manufacturers whose main business is in that sector of the industry and not output of that particular type of garment. (³) These indices have been adjusted to allow for the differences in the lengths of calendar months but not for holidays or for other seasonal variations. (⁴) From January 1965 the figures relate to an enlarged panel of contributors.

(¹) The figures relate to schemes mainly over 5,000 sq. ft. (²) For all projects (new buildings, extensions to existing premises and buildings converted to industrial use) for which industrial development certificates were issued. (³) The area of industrial building has, since mid-August 1966, been extended to include all ancillary space for storage, canteens, etc. The figures in the second line are estimates of the area which would have been approved on the old basis. In Scotland, Wales and North region the area approved was already for the broader coverage now used in other regions. (⁴) Provisional. (⁵) For manufacturing industry only (new buildings and extensions to existing premises).

(¹) Excluding building which is wholly financed from private sources. (²) From January 1960 for Scotland and from April 1960 for England and Wales the cost of school meals projects has not been separately recorded. The value of such projects, shown separately for the years 1946 to 1959 in previous tables of educational building, has been included as appropriate under the headings 'Primary and secondary' and 'Special schools'. (³) Figures for England and Wales include the value of projects for which specific approval is not required. (⁴) Totals for England and Wales include the value of certain projects for which no analysis between type of project is available. As from October 1961, the individual value of such projects is less than £2,000. (⁵) Figures for England and Wales relate to project values and those for Scotland to contract values. Figures for Scotland include the cost of certain minor projects for which specific approval is not required. (⁶) This figure takes account of the value of Colleges of Advanced Technology projects transferred to the University Grants Committee on 1 April 1965. (⁷) The Scottish figures of projects approved refer to approval at the sketch plan stage, which might be some six to twelve months before the start of construction. (⁸) The Scottish figures of 'Under construction' and 'Completions' are based on the tender costs. The 'Under construction' and 'Completions' figures exclude the value of approved school projects which in 1966 amounted to £1,037,000 and £50,000 respectively.

(1) The method of calculation of the number of new places provided differs in England and Wales and Scotland. In England and Wales the figures refer to the number of pupils for which new school accommodation is designed. In Scotland the figures refer to the sum of the approved capacities of all the teaching rooms whether classrooms or practical rooms, and will normally exceed the number of pupils for which accommodation is designed.

(2) Including new schools brought into partial use before completion.

(3) Extensions, alterations, remodelling and war damage repairs.

(¹) The railway figures up to December 1962 are derived from statistics compiled by the British Transport Commission and from January 1963 from statistics compiled by the British Railways Board. The annual figures for road transport are estimated from periodic sample enquiries, traffic count data, trends in the goods vehicle population and changes in industrial output. The monthly road transport figures are estimated from traffic count data. (²) Not over 30 cwt. unladen weight.

(2) The reduced fares category includes statutory day returns in the London area. From 29 January 1966 full fares and reduced fares have been combined for London Transport railways. Similarly, the annual figure for 1965 has been combined, with an appropriate revision for 1964.

(3) Season ticket journeys are calculated on the basis of 600 journeys per annum for London Transport, and before 1962 for British Railways. From 1962 the basis used for British Railways is 540 journeys per annum.

⁽²⁾ Up to and including 1962 the figures are based on miles actually hauled and include free-hauled traffic except that hauled by departmental trains. From the beginning of 1963 they are based on miles charged for and exclude all free-hauled traffic.

(5) The sum of the twelve monthly receipts under certain headings is slightly greater than the total shown for the financial year. This is because the monthly figures include duties ultimately payable to the Isle of Man and adjustments for these are made only at the end of the financial year. (6) Including receipts from the 10 per cent. regulator on most Customs and Excise duties and on purchase tax, operative (i) from 26 July 1961 to 9 April 1962 and (ii) from 21 July 1966 to 11 April 1967. (7) Including receipts from the temporary charge on imports from October 1964 to November 1966 less export rebates.

This is mainly due to differences of coverage which result from basing the new analysis on the Standard Industrial Classification.

(1) Derived from yield-maturity curves fitted by computer; an outline of the method used was given in the Bank of England Quarterly Bulletin for March 1967. Taxes are ignored. The yearly figures are averages of end month yields. The monthly figures for 1964-66 relate to the last working day and from January 1967 to averages of Wednesdays.

(2) From 1961 to 1962 stocks with coupons below 3½ per cent. were omitted from the calculation of the curves; from January 1963 the limit was 4 per cent. and from January 1966 5 per cent. The effect of the break between 1962 and 1963 on the annual averages is negligible; the break in January 1966 causes a drop of 0.06 per cent. in the short-dated series but does not affect the medium- or long-dated series.

(3) Average of working days, based on the mean of the middle opening and middle closing prices each day, excluding gross accrued interest; tax is ignored.

(4) Averages of daily figures calculated from middle market closing prices.

(5) Gross redemption yields of 15 stocks so combined as to give a yield average for a constant 20-year term.

⁽²⁾ The industries included in the enquiry are manufacturing, agriculture, mining, construction, gas, electricity, water, transport and communication and certain miscellaneous services. The coverage of the returns is virtually complete in gas, electricity, coalmining and rail transport. In the remaining sectors, the index is based on returns from a sample of about 7,500 firms having about 5½ million employees. In all, the returns show the earnings of about 60 per cent. of the total number of employees in the industries concerned.

Note: There are fluctuations from month to month due to such factors as bonus payments, seasonal variations in hours worked, loss of overtime pay during holidays, etc. Seasonally adjusted figures for all industries covered are given in the second column of the table, though these are based on only four years' data and cannot be regarded as precise. It is not yet possible to produce reliable seasonal adjustments for the individual industries.

(²) The monthly totals in the columns headed 'Increase' and 'Decrease' relate to the number of workpeople affected by changes and the corresponding gross amounts. Workpeople affected by two or more changes are counted only once in the annual totals which relate to the number having increases only or for whom increases exceeded decreases, the number having decreases only or for whom decreases exceeded increases, and the corresponding net amounts; the column headed 'Net increase' is therefore the overall net increase for the year.

(³) The annual totals of net increases in basic weekly rates of wages mean that the total wage bill of the country, in the industries and for the workpeople covered by the statistics, for a full ordinary week's work at basic rates of wages at the end of any one year exceeds that for the corresponding week of the preceding year by the amount stated. The average weekly wages paid during any one year will not, however, exceed those paid during the preceding year by this sum, as the actual changes will have taken place at various dates during the year.

⁽¹⁾ The index of retail prices replaced the Interim index from January 1956. A new set of weights was introduced, based on ascertained consumption in 1953-54, valued at January 1956 prices. Commencing in January 1962, the weights have been revised each January on the basis of ascertained consumption in the three years ended in the previous June, valued at prices obtaining at the date of revision.

(1) Based on manufacturers' list prices.

(2) The market-price series are based on prices before the addition of subsidies paid to producers under the Cereals Deficiency Payments Scheme and Fatstock Guarantee Scheme.

(3) The gross-price series for wheat, cattle and pigs are based on prices after the addition of subsidies paid to producers; those for milk and eggs on prices paid to producers by the marketing boards for these commodities; and that for potatoes on producer prices, sometimes 'supported' by the Potato Marketing Board.

(4) Figures to June 1967 have been adjusted to final deficiency payments.

(5) Maincrop potatoes only.

(6) Based on guaranteed minimum prices to producers at packing station until March 1966, then on B.E.M.B. prices to producers under the Egg Contract Schemes.

(7) Based on net prices to farmers after deduction of subsidy.

(¹) Great Britain. Figures until June 1959 were based on quarterly returns from virtually all cinemas. From July 1959 onwards, figures were estimates based on information relating to a sample of cinemas. From April 1967, figures are based on four-weekly returns submitted regularly to H.M. Customs and Excise by cinemas responsible for approximately 94 per cent. of total takings with an estimate for the remainder of the cinemas, which are exempt from four-weekly returns. This estimate is based on an annual Board of Trade inquiry. (²) Manufacturers' sales exclusive of purchase tax. (³) Including medium play and a small number of other types. *Average of five weeks.

It also gives information about capital issues, stock exchange transactions, interest rates and the balance of payments.

Financial Statistics contains over 100 pages of tables covering the following subjects:

- FINANCIAL ACCOUNTS
- EXCHEQUER AND CENTRAL GOVERNMENT
- LOCAL AUTHORITIES
- PUBLIC CORPORATIONS
- BANKS AND BANKING INSTITUTIONS
- BUILDING SOCIETIES
- UNIT AND INVESTMENT TRUSTS
- INSURANCE COMPANIES AND SUPERANNUATION FUNDS
- OTHER FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Financial Statistics will be of interest not only to those who deal with financial matters in their daily business, but to all concerned with monetary and economic affairs.
